5. [redacted] In response to his call to John Maury, I met with Chairman Lucien Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee, House Armed Services Committee, and gave him the strength figures of Agency personnel in Indochina for Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam. Nedzi said he wanted to discuss these figures with Chairman Hebert before any determination is made concerning their use.

In response to his query, I told Nedzi that from the limited information available at this time the Washington Post item concerning [redacted] allegations of spying on Senator Goldwater in 1964 appears completely unfounded. He asked that we provide him with as much detail as possible even if it was necessary to call him at home this evening.
